A firefighter and the woman who broke his heart ten years ago.The beautiful and fiercely loyal, Emily Times, wouldn't admit that Tom Kent was the one who got away. No, she would never admit that. Number one, because she'd turned him down. And, number two, because she didn't have time to think about the past. Until she's stuck at her boss's wedding in Maui and her boyfriend ditches her at the last minute. When Tom Kent wins a trip to Maui, he has mixed feelings about going by himself and is over the moon happy when his professional football player brother takes time off to go with him. He never imagined he'd run into the woman he proposed marriage to ten years ago. And he really never imagined she would ask him to be her date for a wedding? Good thing he says no. Too bad his brother ends up going back to Denver and all he can think about is how bad Emily must be hurting. So he makes a deal with her--he attends the wedding and she goes with him on the excursions already booked. When old feelings start to surface, they must make a choice: trust in each other or walk away and lose the dream they always wanted.
